Answer:

The main characters include:

- Bernard Marx: An Alpha-Plus who feels alienated due to his physical and psychological differences from others. He questions the societal norms of the World State.
- John "the Savage": A man raised outside the World State on the Savage Reservation. He symbolizes natural human instincts and is a critic of the society.

It contrasts sharply with the highly controlled, sterile society of the World State. The Reservation allows the novel to explore themes of natural human instincts, religion, and traditional values, which are suppressed in the society of the World State. John the Savage?s upbringing here makes him a pivotal character, as he embodies the clash between natural humanity and engineered society.
